

You're invited to hear from ...

PAULO NZAMBI

OF MANCHESTER BIDWELL CORPORATION

"Lusotropicalism (Portuguese colonialism) in Angola"

Thursday, March 5th, 2015

Founders Room

11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Paulo Nzambi is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Manchester Bidwell Corporation and its affiliates Bidwell Training Center, Manchester Craftsmen's Guild and the National Center for Arts and Technology. Before joining Manchester Bidwell Corporation, Mr. Nzambi worked as a trial lawyer for the City of Pittsburgh and the law firm of Robb Leonard Mulvihill. An entrepreneur, Mr. Nzambi has managed the acquisition, renovation and rental of residential real estate, a project he started in 2003 and continues to the present day. In addition to his civic activism, he is a member of Pittsburgh Playback Theatre. As a playwright and actor, Mr. Nzambi's most recent plays "Unintended Consequences" and "To Suffer the Silence" were performed as part of the Three Rivers Arts festival.

