"13 Score" is the latest in a long and storied line of independent films made in western Pennsylvania. The story takes place over the course of an evening in October at a popular Halloween attraction being staged at an amusement park.

Filmmaker, Max Walters has worked in corporate video and advertising, but has been surrounded by the performing arts all of his life. He teaches film, video, visual effects and motion graphics at the Art Institute of Pittsburgh and Chatham University.

Don Gabany is an award-winning producer, director, cinematographer, steady-cam operator, lighting director, and editor. He teaches at the Art Institute of Pittsburgh and at Chatham University.

Screening will be followed by discussion with the filmmakers.
